

Augustus Saint-Gaudens Memorial (NPS)

Cornish

Augustus Saint-Gaudens, one of the nation's most talented sculptors, lived and worked here during the last 22 years of his life. After his death in 1907 his widow and son deeded the property to a group established to maintain it as a memorial. Casts of some of his most noted works are displayed in the studio. The property became the Saint-Gaudens National Historic Site in 1965 and is open to the public
